Philadelphia International Airport Offers Exclusive Parking for AAdvantage® Aviator™ Mastercard® Cardmembers

Partnership with card issuer Barclaycard provides cardmembers discounted, premium parking now through May 2018

PHILADELPHIA – Philadelphia International Airport (PHL) announced today a partnership with Barclaycard offering dedicated Short-Term parking for AAdvantage® Aviator™ Mastercard® cardmembers at a reduced rate on the ground level of Garage B. This parking rate is up to 25 percent less than other Short-Term lots and the dedicated spaces will be available through May 31, 2018.

“This new passenger amenity at PHL allows those carrying an AAdvantage® Aviator™ Mastercard® an easier and more efficient travel experience,” said Katya Nieburg, director of airline partnerships, Barclaycard. “Delighting cardmembers by providing travel perks like this is just another way we show them how much we appreciate being their preferred travel card.”

As an additional benefit, this designated parking area can accommodate overnight usage for cardmembers. Overnight parking is generally not permitted in other Short-Term (ground-level) parking at PHL.

For added convenience, tickets are not required to measure the length of time a cardmember’s vehicle is in the designated AAdvantage® Aviator™ parking area. As a cardmember swipes their credit card at the entrance gate, this documents the time of entry into the lot in lieu of a ticket. To receive the discounted parking rate, cardmembers just need to use the same AAdvantage® Aviator™ Mastercard® used to enter upon exit to pay for their parking rate.

Travelers can access the AAdvantage® Aviator™ lot from the Airport Car Rental Return Road. The designated entrance is next to the Garage B entrance.

“We are pleased to offer this program to AAdvantage® Aviator™ cardmembers, especially because this parking area is in close proximity to the American Airlines check-in counters,” said Jim Tyrrell, PHL Chief Revenue Officer. “We continually look for opportunities to make travel more convenient for passengers who choose PHL.”

This offer is exclusively for use by cardmembers with an AAdvantage® Aviator™ Mastercard® issued by Barclaycard. All AAdvantage® Aviator™ Mastercard® cardmembers with accounts in good standing can access this parking area. This includes:

- AAdvantage® Aviator™ Red Mastercard®
- AAdvantage® Aviator™ Silver World Elite Mastercard®
- AAdvantage® Aviator™ Blue Mastercard®
- AAdvantage® Aviator™ Mastercard®
- AAdvantage® Aviator™ Business Mastercard®

Those interested in the AAdvantage® Aviator™ Red Mastercard® may learn more and apply for the card in flight or in the airport.
